Town Hall Meeting, Performance and Discussion about Underage Drinking

Presented by Straight Up Ventura County in collaboration with the Ventura Unified School District and the Federal Government's Interagency Coordinating Committee on the Prevention of Underage Drinking

Ventura County is one of thousands of communities nationwide that will hold a Town Hall Meeting the week of March 22-26 to raise awareness about today's trends in underage drinking. Parents, teachers, law enforcement, youth, and other local leaders will come together to explore underage drinking as a social and community issue and to discuss strategies for positive change.

Thursday, March 25, 2010
6:30 – 8:30pm • Free!

Ventura City Hall
Community Meeting Room
Room 202, 501 Poli St., Ventura
Content suitable for ages 13+

Agenda includes a performance by local youth, panel discussion hosted by local leaders and experts in the field, Reality Party for Parents" performance (a reenactment of a teen drinking party), and a chance to ask questions, create dialogue, and seek solutions.

Refreshments will be served.
